

Wordless (or Almost) Picture Books

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | The Umbrella Ingrid and Dieter Schubert A little dog finds an umbrella in the garden on a windy day. The moment the dog picks up the umbrella, it catches the wind and pulls the dog skywards. This is the start to fantastic journey around the world. The wind carries the umbrellas and the dog all over the world, from the desert to the sea, from the jungle to the north pole. |
|  | Flotsam David Wiesner A bright, science-minded boy goes to the beach equipped to collect and examine flotsam--anything floating that has been washed ashore. Bottles, lost toys, small objects of every description are among his usual finds. But there's no way he could have prepared for one particular discovery: a barnacle-encrusted underwater camera, with its own secrets to share and to keep |
|  | Flashlight Lizi Boyd Inside a tent it's cozy. But what is going on outside? Is it dark? Is it scary? Not if you have your trusty flashlight! Told solely through images and using a spare yet dramatic palette, artist Lizi Boyd has crafted a masterful exploration of night, nature, and art. Both lyrical and humorous, this visual poem—like the flashlight beam itself—reveals that there is magic in the darkness. We just have to look for it. |
|  | Shadow Suzy Lee Internationally acclaimed artist Suzy Lee uses these simple elements to create a visual tour de force that perfectly captures the joy of creative play and celebrates the power of imagination. Stunning in their simplicity, Lee's illustrations, in just two shades of colour, present an adventure that begins and ends with the click of a light bulb. |
|  | Learn the Alphabet with Northwest Coast Native Art Colourful illustrations by various NW Native/First Nations artists providing a unique take on learning the alphabet |
|  | Journey Aaron Becker A lonely girl draws a magic door on her bedroom wall and through it escapes into a world where wonder, adventure, and danger abound. Red marker in hand, she creates a boat, a balloon, and a flying carpet that carry her on a spectacular journey toward an uncertain destiny. When she is captured by a sinister emperor, only an act of tremendous courage and kindness can set her free. Can it also lead her home and to her heart's desire? . |

The resources in this kit belong to Early Literacy, Learning Services. They are loaned for classroom use only. Please remember to return all items in good condition to Learning Services. Any items missing will be replaced and billed to the school directly.

Wordless (or Almost) Picture Books

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | The Farmer and the Clown Marla Frazee Whimsical and touching images tell the story of an unexpected friendship and the revelations it inspires in this moving, wordless picture book from two-time Caldecott Honor medalist Marla Frazee. A baby clown is separated from his family when he accidentally bounces off their circus train and lands in a lonely farmer's vast, empty field. The farmer reluctantly rescues the little clown, and over the course of one day together, the two of them make some surprising discoveries about themselves—and about life! |
|  | Lost. Found. Marsha Diane Arnold On a wintry day, a bear loses his soft red scarf. The wind carries it whoosh to a pair of raccoons who use it to play tug-o-war. When they run off, a beaver dons the scarf as the perfect winter hat...until it gets tangled on a tree branch. The scarf is lost and found by a series of animals, including a fox and a couple of rascally squirrels, who use it as everything from a swing to a trampoline. |
|  | Chalk Bill Thomson Three children discover a magical bag of chalk on a rainy day |
|  | The Lion and the Mouse Jerry Pinkney In award-winning artist Jerry Pinkney's wordless adaptation of one of Aesop's most beloved fables, an unlikely pair learn that no act of kindness is ever wasted. After a ferocious lion spares a cowering mouse that he'd planned to eat, the mouse later comes to his rescue, freeing him from a poacher's trap. With vivid depictions of the landscape of the African Serengeti and expressively-drawn characters, Pinkney makes this a truly special retelling, and his stunning pictures speak volumes. |
|  | GEM Holly Hobbie Look carefully. There may be a gem in your garden. |
|  | A boy, a dog and a frog Mercer Mayer A boy and his dog go walking in the swamp. They spot a frog in the water. Can they use a net to catch him? |

The resources in this kit belong to Early Literacy, Learning Services. They are loaned for classroom use only. Please remember to return all items in good condition to Learning Services. Any items missing will be replaced and billed to the school directly.

Wordless (or Almost) Picture Books

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Feelings Stephanie Reid Children will be inspired to tell their own stories with this wordless book, filled with engaging, colourful images that show children all types of different facial expressions. |
|  | A Dog's Life Rose Lorenzo Think and discuss....What kind of care does a dog need? |
|  | The Line Paula Bossio A small girl finds the end of a long black line and picks it up. She wiggles the line, slides down it and spins inside circles made from it. In her hands, the line transforms into bubbles to blow, a jungle vine to swing from and a tightrope to balance on. The girl is having such a good time! Until suddenly, the line turns into a big, hungry monster! Oh, no! Will the little girl be eaten, or will another surprise twist to the line save her from the frightening creature |
|  | A Ball for Daisy Chris Raschka Any child who has ever had a beloved toy break will relate to Daisy's anguish when her favorite ball is destroyed by a bigger dog . The author explores in pictures the joy and sadness that having a special toy can bring. |
|  | French Blocks - Explore your knowledge of the French language with this 28 block set. Enjoy the embossed fleur-de-lis filigree. This stylized detail surrounds two capital letters on opposing sides of each block. Two other sides show one number and one animal with their French translations. Two more handcrafted capital letters make four complete alphabets. |
|  | The Boy and the Airplane Mark Pett When a little boy's prized toy airplane lands on a rooftop, he makes several rescue attempts before devising an unexpected solution. |
|  | Native Animals Chunky Puzzle Journeys in Nature Chunky Puzzle  |

The resources in this kit belong to Early Literacy, Learning Services. They are loaned for classroom use only. Please remember to return all items in good condition to Learning Services. Any items missing will be replaced and billed to the school directly.