Dinosaur Explorer

Dougal Dixon

Learning about science requires action! The stunning colour photographs in these books capture children's attention, making them eager to listen to the books being read and then to go back and read them again on their own. Fascinating facts, easy-to-read text, and an illustrated glossary combine to encourage students to think about what they are reading. With thinking comes comprehension and knowledge!

What Did Dinosaurs Eat?

Elizabeth MacLeod

Dinosaurs roamed Earth millions of years ago, but they still fascinate kids today. The mysterious lives of these? terrible lizards? often elicit a volley of questions. Were all dinosaurs fierce? How fast could they run? Did dinosaurs fly? Were they meat-eaters, plant-eaters --- or both?

My Teacher Is a Dinosaur

Loreen Leedy

With lively illustrations, poems, riddles, jokes, and interesting facts, Loreen Leedy takes readers on a prehistoric tour beginning with the formation of Earth 4.5 billion years ago. Readers will learn about the plants and animals in each period up to when dinosaurs and small mammals and even humans appeared. There's a time line that helps clarify the different periods covered
